

GERMAN WORDS AND GERMAN DEEDS

21

"We see everywhere how our soldiers regard the sacred definition of manhood and child."

Prof. G. Baurle, in "Deutsche Helden in schone Zeit."

"We are still children in our innocent feelings, innocent in our pleasure."

Friedrich Lange, in "Petersen's Dictation."

"We take refuge in our quiet peaceful thoughts, and dream, not about it, of our silent manner for the saving of mankind."

Hans J. Wulfsberg, in "Gedanken von Koenigsberg."

"We thank our German Army that it has kept open the gates of humanity."

Prof. W. Kall, in "Deutsche Helden in schone Zeit."

"From all sides intentions are flowing in as to the noble manner in which our troops conduct the war."

Peter J. Rapp.

"It is true that the breast of every soldier swelled with a noble pride at the thought that he was privileged to wear the German uniform, which history has made a part of human culture."

Dr. Deutsche und deutsches King, by K. Engelhardt.

"The German soldiers show us thoroughly disciplined, and have never so much as had a hair of a single moment human being."

H. S. Chamberlain, in "Koenigsberg."

"The officers of the German Navy, I say it loudly, will always fulfill in the extreme fashion the duties which the unwritten law of humanity and civilization lay upon them."

Berni Mannheim, in "Deutsche Helden in schone Zeit."

"A part from the fighting quality of these troops, their peaceful work behind the front bears witness to a thorough spiritual work."

Herman Stuart Chamberlain, in "Die Zeitschrift."

"We Germans represent the latest and the highest achievement of European Kecher."

Prof. A. Lamm, in "Deutsche Helden in schone Zeit."

"How often in these days has the German soldier been subjected to the temptation to treat the inhabitants of foreign countries with violence and brutality, but everywhere he has chosen the law, and shows that even in the hours of his leisure he distinguishes between the enemy in the field and the innocent women and children. The offenders and criminals of conquered territory have been spared, and the homes exposed to no further harm."

Peter M. Hising, in "The King and We."

"Germany is generally, with few exceptions to deny it, the representative of the highest morality of the present humanity, the most advanced Christianity."

Peter M. Hising.

"As they continued their advance, the Germans collected about them men, women, and children some of the women with babies in their arms from Copenhagen, Lauenburg and Malmo, and there were forwarded as a nurse, against the Belgians forces holding the outer ring of the Aachen Line."

Appendix to the Report of the Belgian Committee.

"Come on the loss and beyond through the streets of Liege."

Diary of a German soldier, noted in the Belgian Report.

"The German Secretary of State for the Colonies has admitted that from 1903 to 1913 105,000 natives have been killed in expeditions against them."

"While a number of wounded were being attended in a military hospital, a general attack was made on the wounded and military staff."

The German, Violation of the Laws of War (Herald).

"The Belgians refuse to be shot all Frenchmen who fall into our hands, wounded or not. No prisoners are to be made."

Diary of R. Bismarck, 1126 German Report, printed in Great Britain.

"Detached parties went to enter the streets, but actually the first houses and buildings of interest were left to break for war and other things. The Germans, who were in the streets on their own affairs and a good example by going on ahead."

"A battle with many deaths was fought on the 12th of May, which resulted in a complete German victory."

Extract from the Diary of Gustav Koenig.

"My company is at Boulogne. Our men behave like savages. They are in a great hurry to get to the front. They are to defend all fortifications, not a house is left standing. We have dragged out every old man, woman, and child, and have shot them 'en masse'."

Diary of a German Officer.

"The Lusitania was torpedoed without warning on May 7th, 1915, when 1400 men, women, and children were drowned. The Germans struck a special note to celebrate this event."

"At Christmas for two months they (the Germans) had been quarantining the soldiers of all the houses and exhibiting the quality of their military equipment. They were in the front and then after a long of pillage, in which they carried off furniture, got into and seized their property, they systematically destroyed the towns in the most thorough and ruthless manner by fire and mines for the space of a fortnight."

Extract from the Proceedings of the French Senate, April 1st, 1917.

"In the cemetery of Cologne, the day of the chapel over the vault of the Swiss family Graffenhofen-Weiss was carried off. A stone of the vault was torn away and taken away, visible through the aperture. A Swiss family, two witnesses suggested some German the act of breaking open the tombs of the French and German families."

"The church in which the cemetery belongs has been shamefully pillaged."

Official Report of the French Chamber of Deputies, 1914/15.

"The names of the priests and of members of the religious orders in the Diocese of Malines who, to my knowledge, have been put to death by the German troops are: the Bishops of the Society of Jesus, Sebastian Adriaen, of the Congregation of the Holy Sacrament, of the Order of the Holy Spirit, of the Order of Our Lady of Pity, Father Vincent, Professor Germaine, Lombard, Goss, De Clench, Dierckx, and others."

Letter of Cardinal Mercier to the German Emperor.

"The names of the priests and of members of the religious orders in the Diocese of Malines who, to my knowledge, have been put to death by the German troops are: the Bishops of the Society of Jesus, Sebastian Adriaen, of the Congregation of the Holy Sacrament, of the Order of the Holy Spirit, of the Order of Our Lady of Pity, Father Vincent, Professor Germaine, Lombard, Goss, De Clench, Dierckx, and others."

Letter of Cardinal Mercier to the German Emperor.

"The names of the priests and of members of the religious orders in the Diocese of Malines who, to my knowledge, have been put to death by the German troops are: the Bishops of the Society of Jesus, Sebastian Adriaen, of the Congregation of the Holy Sacrament, of the Order of the Holy Spirit, of the Order of Our Lady of Pity, Father Vincent, Professor Germaine, Lombard, Goss, De Clench, Dierckx, and others."

Letter of Cardinal Mercier to the German Emperor.

"The names of the priests and of members of the religious orders in the Diocese of Malines who, to my knowledge, have been put to death by the German troops are: the Bishops of the Society of Jesus, Sebastian Adriaen, of the Congregation of the Holy Sacrament, of the Order of the Holy Spirit, of the Order of Our Lady of Pity, Father Vincent, Professor Germaine, Lombard, Goss, De Clench, Dierckx, and others."

"The names of the priests and of members of the religious orders in the Diocese of Malines who, to my knowledge, have been put to death by the German troops are: the Bishops of the Society of Jesus, Sebastian Adriaen, of the Congregation of the Holy Sacrament, of the Order of the Holy Spirit, of the Order of Our Lady of Pity, Father Vincent, Professor Germaine, Lombard, Goss, De Clench, Dierckx, and others."

Letter of Cardinal Mercier to the German Emperor.

"The names of the priests and of members of the religious orders in the Diocese of Malines who, to my knowledge, have been put to death by the German troops are: the Bishops of the Society of Jesus, Sebastian Adriaen, of the Congregation of the Holy Sacrament, of the Order of the Holy Spirit, of the Order of Our Lady of Pity, Father Vincent, Professor Germaine, Lombard, Goss, De Clench, Dierckx, and others."

Letter of Cardinal Mercier to the German Emperor.

"The names of the priests and of members of the religious orders in the Diocese of Malines who, to my knowledge, have been put to death by the German troops are: the Bishops of the Society of Jesus, Sebastian Adriaen, of the Congregation of the Holy Sacrament, of the Order of the Holy Spirit, of the Order of Our Lady of Pity, Father Vincent, Professor Germaine, Lombard, Goss, De Clench, Dierckx, and others."